I am delighted to endorse the valuable work of World Heritage Productions as they focus world attention on the importance of safeguarding our shared heritage for future generations. I applaud their innovative approach.

World Heritage Productions is creating the first comprehensive collection of the UNESCO heritage sites in a variety of multi-media formats and will be travelling to over 100 countries. In addition, the World Heritage Productions team is documenting over 800 cultural and natural wonders.

As Patron of the World Monuments Fund, I have a longstanding passion for the preservation and restoration of ancient sites and monuments and I recognise the part they play in the local and national economies.

The role of World Heritage Productions is crucial. I encourage you to participate with them in their work, and help to swell the ranks of those committed to leaving a lasting legacy.

His Royal Highness Prince Michael of Kent, GCVO
